

Luc Tapella

Director, Institut Luxembourgeois de Régulation (ILR), Luxembourg

Luc Tapella is the Director of the Institut Luxembourgeois de Régulation, a multi-sector regulator (Electronic Communications, Frequencies, Energy, Postal services, Rail and Air transport, and Network and Information Systems Security) in the Grand-Duché of Luxembourg.

In 2022, he was the Chair of FRATEL, the global network of French-speaking regulators, which was dedicated to the themes of cyber security and network resilience. He was also Vice-Chair 2021 of the Independent Regulators Group in Europe.

He previously worked in finance and in the space industry (Société Européenne des Satellites and member of the executive committee of SATLYNX) and CFO of Wagner Management in Luxembourg.

Luc Tapella holds a Master's degree in Economics from the University III of Aix-en-Provence (France).